

Version Notes 5.9.0.0

Type	Name	Description	Requires support to activate
New feature	Balance real-time update to external webshops	Support for pushing balance information via webhook as soon as balance moves has been added for both physical and available stock	Yes
Improvement	Update of Product API	Possibility to pass product GTIN data via Product API has been added	No
Improvement	Update of Invoice API	Extra control is now possible to add on Create invoice API to avoid that external system tries to create an invoice twice.	Yes
Improvement	WooCommerce integration improvements	WooCommerce API integration has been improved to fully support multiple sales channels against two or more WooCommerce instances. The handles risk of collision between order number series and product numbers/SKUs.	Yes
Improvement	Shopify integration update	The Shopify integration has been adapted to support the changes in Shopify APIs regarding Shopify upcoming support for multiple warehouses/locations.	No
Improvement	Purchase order improvements	Support for adding package data to file export dispatch message for purchase orders has been added	No
New feature	Incoterms settings on customer.	Support for adding incoterms to orders has been added. This was previously only supported via file integrations but is now supported via Extend backend interfaces. Incoterms default settings can be setup on the client and can be overridden on individual customers. If no action is taken setting will as previously default to DDP.	No
New feature	Upload of users & new welcome mail	Support for uploading Customer user has been added (users in the webshop) In addition the system now can automatically send a welcome email to the users with log in information and a customizable message.	Yes

Created by Martin Hagman
 Approved by Mathias Bredin

Date 2018-09-26
 Version 1.0

Page 2 of 3

Improvement	Store "shopping cart" even if customer logs out	Extend Webshops version 3 and higher can now be setup to save the customer's cart in persistent media i.e despite sign off from store the cart is still available upon next sign in.	Yes
Improvement	Improvements of handling offers.	Offer search result now shows if a comment has been registered on the offer	No
Improvement	Updated feature for purchase order handling	Possibility to add date of shipment information to the suborder when confirming row has been added.	No
Improvement	Improved search for suppliers	The user interface for suborder booking now search for suppliers in the filter section in an auto-complete fashion instead of previous drop down. This means a higher number of suppliers are supported.	No
Improvement	Support for Collector bank service	We have now support for Collector bank service incl. factoring. If you use Fortnox and Collector bank, Extend can now control what invoices Collector bank automatically should receive from Fortnox. This is def. in Extend and sent to Fortnox from Extend. Then invoices are transferred to collector via the Fortnox – Collector API.
Improvement	Extended function against Ongoing Warehouse	The integration with Ongoing Warehouse has been extended to support return order synchronization	No
New function	Quality control on basic data.	Support for handling master data settings (what fields etc. are required) has been added to the supplier and the supplier agreement entity.	Yes
New function	Giftshop and giftshop orders.	Support for a new order type, giftshop order, has been added
Improvement	Smarter navigation from customer page to offer page.	It is now possible to create an offer via link from the customer page in Extend Backend, as already available for orders.	No
Improvement	New default prints on order.	Several printout options have been added to Extend Backend order preview page, like proforma invoice, delivery note and custom data. This	No

Created by Martin Hagman
 Approved by Mathias Bredin

Date 2018-09-26
 Version 1.0

Page 3 of 3

		in addition to the existing order document pdf.
Improvement	New return order on booking page.	We have introduced a new site for return orders. The page makes it possible to select rows from many different orders or directly to articles. Now when you can choose from many orders, you will be able to retrieve returns where the customer has received many deliveries and prices are different between the deliveries.	No
Improvement	New search function when creating purchase order	When creating purchase orders to warehouse the product list can now be filtered via product category	No